

Brief Story Line Summary

"The Great Awakening" was written to put the story of the first century spread of Christianity worldwide into historical context. I believed this would demonstrate that this was truly God's Greatest Miracle.